NATIONAL SUPPORT CENTRE FOR AGRICULTURE

(KOWR) is a state-owned institution supervised by the Ministry of Agriculture and Rural Development. It was established to support agri-food producers and exporters and the development of innovative agriculture, as well as to improve the quality of life in rural areas. The role of the KOWR is to build a positive image and recognition of Polish agri-food products abroad under the slogan "POLAND TASTES GOOD." The KOWR supports Polish entrepreneurs in the agri-food industry in their efforts to expand into new markets by organizing trade missions and national stands at food trade fairs abroad.

CONTIMAX

CONTIMAX was founded 32 years ago in the south of Poland – a region seemingly the farthest away from the Baltic Sea. Despite Bochnia being closer to the mountains than the Baltic Sea, Contimax has successfully opened three production facilities to supply the Polish market and has steadily increased its international customer base, establishing itself as one of the largest fish producers in Poland. We currently supply our products to 30 countries around the world. Our wide product range and diversified production allow us to be a strategic supplier in the category. Our product portfolio is complemented by products dedicated to the Horeca industry.
